Welcome and thank you for joining in our worship this sacred morning! We hope you feel at home in our midst. Let us pause to remember that in this region we live and work and worship on lands that are, by law, the unceded territories of the Wabanaki peoples—predominantly the lands of the Mi'kmaq, Wolastoqiyik and Passamaquoddy. May we live with respect on this land, and live in friendship with its people. Grace and Alleluia to you all!

OPENING PRAYER ENDING WITH THE LORD'S PRAYER

God of Grace and Tender Care,

You come to us today, to bring us together in hope,
longing to create a people who care for one another,
and all creation.

You come to be our foundation of faith,
to be that peace that gives us the courage to let go of what is no more.

Come, empty us of all that holds us back,
nudge us forward with the wind of love and justice.

Fill our worship with your grace,
more precious than all our brokenness.

And now, with grateful, open hearts, we pray together, saying:

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done,

On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil,

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,

For ever and ever. Amen.
